COLLECTION AND ASSIGNMENT LAWS, &c.

(Compiled by Messrs. Brosseau, Lajoie & Lacoste, Advocates, Montreal, Que.)

ASSIGNMENTS.—Any creditor for $200 and over, whose claim is unsecured, may make a demand on a debtor to make an assignment or abandonment. If debtor who has ceased his payments refuses to abandon or assign his property he may be compelled to do so by a writ of capias. The assignment is made to a curator appointed by the court, on advice of a meeting of creditors on the vote of the majority in number and value. The curator or trustee realizes assets, and divides the proceeds among creditors, but the debtor is not discharged by such assignment. Creditors accepting the dividend may still retain claim versus debtor for balance.

ATTACHMENTS. — Attachments before judgment issue on production of affidavit by creditor or agent that debtor is about to abscond, or secrete goods with a view to defeat or defraud his creditors.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—There are no such instruments known to the law in Quebec. If a debtor wishes to secure a debt by chattels, he must deliver them absolutely to the creditor.

COMMISSIONS.—Commissions for the taking of evidence outside the Province of Quebec may issue from the Circuit Court and Superior Court.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—The courts recognize and protect contracts, whereby the thing sold remains the property of the unpaid vendor, until all instalments of the sale price have been paid. This applies to contracts in use with regard to the sale of machinery, sewing machines, pianos and other articles of that kind on time, with payments by instalments. In cases arising out of such contracts, the courts here have held that the vendor had a right, on the failure of the person to whom the article was sold, to recover back his machine or article, or whatever it may be, against the claims of the creditors of the purchaser.

CONTRACTS OF MARRIED WOMEN.—A wife who is a public trader, may, without the authorization of her husband, obligate herself for all that relates to her commerce, and in such case she also binds her husband, if there be community between them. A wife cannot bind herself by note or otherwise to pay her husband's debts.

EXECUTION.—Execution can only issue in fifteen days after judgment, unless cause is shown by plaintiff that defendant is making away with his property, when he can procure its issue immediately. But where the judgment is entered for goods sold and delivered or upon promissory notes, etc., the execution may issue eight days after judgment. Execution can only be stayed by opposition of defendant, supported by affidavit which can be filed on the ground of informalities in seizure, or seizure of goods of third party though in possession of defendant. Case tried in the ordinary way, to test those rights, takes from two to three months.

EXEMPTIONS.—The exemptions from execution are beds, bedding and bedsteads, in ordinary use by debtor and his family, necessary wearing apparel, one stove and pipes, and a number of smaller articles, not to exceed $50 in value. All necessary fuel, meat, vegetables, fish, flour not more than sufficient for ordinary consumption of debtor and family for three months; one cow, four sheep, two hogs and food therefor for thirty days; tools and implements of, or chattels ordinarily used in debtor's occupation, not to exceed $200 in value; a homestead in certain cases.

HOLIDAYS.—Sundays, New Year's Day, Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Ascension, All Saints, Conception, Christmas, the Birthday of the Sovereign, or the day fixed by proclamation for its celebration, the 24th of May being Victoria Day, and 1st of July, and any day fixed by the Governor-General or Lieut.-Governor as a public holiday, as a day of general fast or thanksgiving, or as a labor day are legal holidays. Negotiable paper falling due on those days or on a Sunday are due only the day after and must be protested then.

INTEREST.—Interest may be charged when defendant has promised to pay it, or when a usage or course of dealing has been proved, under which defendant has been in the habit of paying interest. When no rate agreed upon legal rate is 5 per cent.

JUDGMENTS.—Judgments may be obtained at any time in default cases, but if the defendant appears by attorney, judgment cannot be entered between July 1st and August 31st: but in commercial matters like notes or open accounts, defendant must file a plea or an affidavit that he has a serious defense. Judgments may be obtained where no defense interposed in eight or nine days, and in both courts one extra day must be allowed for every fifty miles that defendant lives from the place where the court is held, over and above the first fifty miles. In case of an absentee defendant, he may be called by advertisement in the newspapers, if defendant has not appeared. Special provisions relating to actions based upon commercial contracts, are designed to expedite the trial and judgment therein. A judgment is good for thirty years No judgment notes are allowed in Quebec.

JURISDICTION OF COURTS.—Circuit Court up to $100; Superior Court, all amounts above $100; notes and accounts are outlawed in five years.

LICENSES.—Any non-resident desiring to act as a commercial traveler for a person or firm not having a place of business in Canada, shall take out a license to be obtained from the provincial revenue collector of the district in which he begins operations. This license shall be good for six months, or shall expire on the first day of the month of May or November nearest the date of issue, as the case may be. Each traveler is required to make affidavit before a proper person, of the name and address of the firm he represents, the nature of its business, and to declare whether he is soliciting orders from the wholesale or the retail trade, or from both, or from the consumer. Travelers who fail to take out the license become liable to a penalty of not more than a thousand dollars and not less than five hundred for each infraction. The firm represented is held jointly responsible for this fine, and it is further provided that in prosecution under the act every such commercial traveler shall be examined as a witness for the Crown. Every traveler shall exhibit his license to collectors of provincial revenue, or to anyone authorized by them when called on, and, in default of so doing, shall be considered as not having taken out a license and punished accordingly Collectors, or those authorized, may inspect the registers of hotels, etc., and refusal on the part of the proprietor renders him liable to a fine of $50, and in default of payment to three months imprisonment. Any traveler lending his license is liable to a penalty of three hundred dollars for each offense. For each semi-annual license for selling goods, other than intoxicating liquors the rate is as follows:—Dealing with the wholesale trade only, $50; dealing with the retail trade, $100; dealing with the consumer, $200. In cases, however, where orders are taken from actual consumers for plant, machinery or tools, which cannot be secured in the Province, a fee of only $50 is exacted.

MECHANICS' LIENS.—The only thing of this kind we have in the Province of Quebec is the builder's privilege, under which the laborer, workman, architect and builder may exercise a privilege upon the real estate property improved by their work. The privilege exists in favor of the laborer, workman and builder during the whole time they are occupied at the work without registration, and with registration provided it be registered within thirty days after the completion or cessation of the work. The architect and builder must inform the proprietor of the immovables of the contracts they have made with the chief contractor within eight days from the signing thereof. Suits against the proprietor in such cases must be entered within one year after the privilege has been registered.

VERIFICATION OF ACCOUNTS.—No verification is wanted; accounts if not contested, may be proved by affidavits taken even outside the Province of Quebec, by competent persons; to wit, notaries or commissioners specially appointed for that purpose by judges of the Province of Quebec, etc., and accounts contested, and other claims contested or not, must be proved out of month of defendant or by witnesses examined in Court or under commission; if the witnesses reside outside of the Province, or even within the Province at a distance of more than one hundred miles from the place where the Court is held.
